

Adversary Proceeding Classes Announced

Adversary proceeding classes

For the sixth year in a row, the Minnesota Bankruptcy Court will conduct classes on filing adversary proceedings. This class covers preparing and filing a complaint and response. Classes start at 10:00 A.M. and will last no longer than two hours. Class dates and locations are below. Attendance will be strictly limited to 12 participants per class. We will set up additional classes if there is enough demand.

NOTE: Due to scheduling considerations, these classes will not be held again this year.

Date	Location
July 17 (previously July 18)	St. Paul
July 25	Minneapolis

To register, login to CM/ECF and follow the link in the Utilities menu to our training calendar; or contact Woody Parks at 612-664-5236 or woody_parks@mn.uscourts.gov.

NEW online adversary proceeding class

In a first for this court, we are pleased to offer an online-only adversary proceeding class. Participants will view the class on their own computers, using their telephones for audio. The content will be the same as the hands-on class. It will begin at 10:00 A.M. and will last no longer than two hours.

Date	Location
Wednesday, July 24	Where ever you are

To register, login to CM/ECF and follow the link in the Utilities menu to our training calendar; or contact Woody Parks at 612-664-5236 or woody_parks@mn.uscourts.gov.

NOTE: Attendance will be strictly limited to 12 participants for this class. We will set up additional classes if there is enough demand.

Materials

The handout used for all adversary classes is found on our Web site under the Filing Guidance tab, Filing Complaints and Answers.